Description

This spectacular villa is located on the best plot on the first line of the Mediterranean Sea between Marbella and Estepona. Located on a 3,000 m² plot with more than 35 linear meters of frontage to the sea, this villa has a total constructed area of more than 1,349 m² surrounded by more than 1,640 m² of gardens. Facing south, with total privacy, the interior is full of light and sea views. The layout of the villa has been designed to achieve maximum sea frontage and thus emphasize the endless views. The plot is completely closed and private and enjoys direct access to the promenade and the sea.

Impressive gardens with a modern style and Mediterranean essence surround this luxurious villa, extending like a large green meadow between the villa itself and the sea. In the southernmost area of the gardens and on the very first line of the beach, lies a new pool concept, with saline chlorination, overflow and with an "infinity" area, which allows perfect visual integration between the pool water and the water of the sea. The structure and distribution of the villa has been perfectly studied to create impressive functional and open spaces on each of its floors.

In short, the connection between interior and exterior reaches another level in this exclusive villa, which combines the result of the perfect union between location, design, quality, views, space, privacy, artistic architecture and much more. further.
