Description

Elegant townhouse with spectacular views of the Guadalquivir River, with more than 500m² and excellent possibilities. The house is divided into two distinct areas: the ground floor was once a local dedicated to hospitality with spacious rooms and open terrace with views. It has a huge storage area and two parking spaces.

The second floor houses the residential area, with 5 bedrooms with fitted closets, 3 bathrooms, splendid living room with balconies and separate kitchen. It also has a tiled patio with a regionalist character that gives access via a staircase to a spectacular terrace that occupies the entire roof and from where you can see the best views of the banks of the Guadalquivir.

A house with a lot of charisma that can be a regular home in La Puebla del Río or a business with many possibilities, even as rural accommodation for its characteristics and large spaces.
