Description

Surrounded by nature, this villa is designed to make the most of its location. Large floor-to-ceiling glass panels allow for the best exposure to light and the most breathtaking views from every room of this unique villa. Thanks to its minimalist architecture, the design connects the interior spaces with the surrounding natural environment, creating a seamless connection between the indoor and outdoor areas. The masterfully executed design opens up the views from the pool area to the golf course and, at the same time, creates a spacious outdoor living area for year-round enjoyment. The villa is distributed over two floors, with the upper floor housing the more private areas, including 4 en-suite bedrooms, each with large terraces overlooking the golf course. overlooking the golf course. Surrounded by golf and nature views, the master bedroom features a large terrace, dressing room and en-suite bathroom. The ground floor houses the living areas, a large open plan space with state-of-the-art kitchen, dining and lounge area that connects to the outdoor terrace and barbecue area, the swimming pool and the front garden. The exterior design has been carefully planned to take advantage of the sunlight, allowing for optimal exposure and temperatures throughout the seasons.
