

Residential building for sale in Puerto de Santa María - Cádiz

Puerto de Santa María, Cádiz

Reference: 204011

1,000,000 €

1,031 €/m²

970 m²

Description

This residential building is located in a magnificent location, next to the Ribera del Marisco in Puerto de Santa María, in the area of Bahía de Cádiz. With a constructed area of 970 square meters, this building offers a great opportunity to develop a housing development in a privileged environment.

The building is completely open-plan, allowing for a wide variety of options in terms of design and layout. Its state of conservation is good, which means that no large investments will be required in construction.

The area of Puerto de Santa María is known for its charm and quiet atmosphere. The neighborhood offers a great quality of life, with numerous services and amenities nearby. In addition, it has excellent public transport connections.

In summary, this residential building in Puerto de Santa María is a unique opportunity to develop a housing development in a privileged environment. With a magnificent location, excellent co

Location and points of interest

The property location is approximate. Contact us for more information.