Description

GILMAR is pleased to present this magnificent property situated in one of the most characterful and charming areas of Seville city centre: the San Julián neighbourhood.

The property, with a floor area of 85 m², has been completely refurbished, offering a modern and functional layout. It comprises three bedrooms and one bathroom, and benefits from excellent natural light, thanks to its orientation and the fact that it faces outwards.

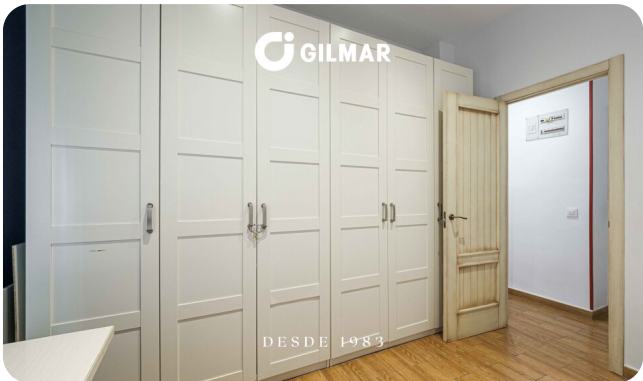

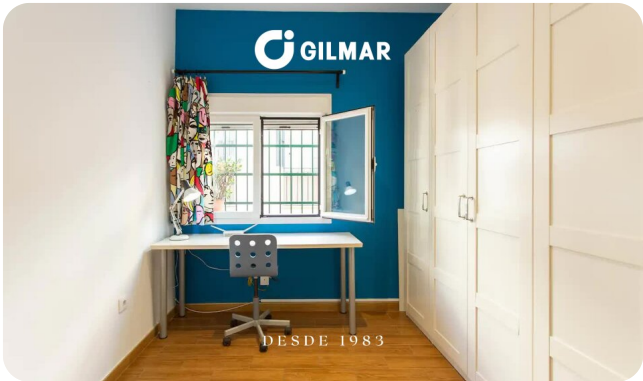

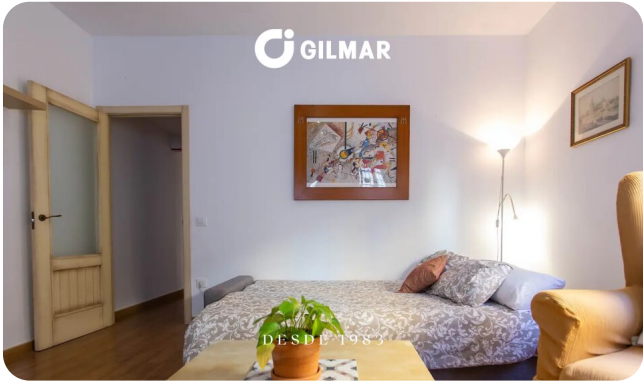

This property is particularly appealing both as a permanent home and for those seeking a property with attractive investment potential, in a well-established location with high demand.

San Julián retains Seville's most authentic character, combining the charm of its streets and squares with its proximity to such iconic landmarks as the Alameda de Hércules, the Basilica of La Macarena and the historic centre. A location that allows you to enjoy the essence of the city on foot, whilst maintaining a peaceful, residential atmosphere.

An opportunity to experience Seville from one of its neighbourhoods with the strongest sense of identity.
