Description

Charming Historic Manor House in the Heart of Bornos (Cádiz)

We present this unique property with character and tradition. This majestic stately home, built in 1840, will transport you to another era without sacrificing modern comforts. Located in the picturesque village of Bornos, on the banks of the reservoir and in the heart of the Sierra de Cádiz, this architectural gem retains original features from the period and a timeless elegance that makes it unique on the market.

Andalusian manor house architecture

High ceilings that provide spaciousness and light

Original details preserved: hydraulic floors, mouldings, traditional carpentry

Spacious rooms ideal for family living, rural accommodation or boutique project

Privileged location in a quiet area with historic charm

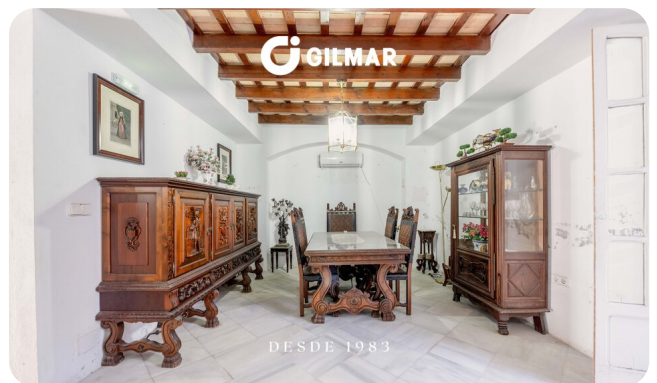

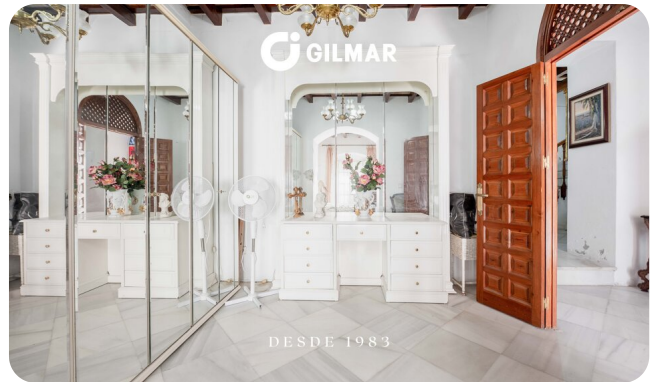

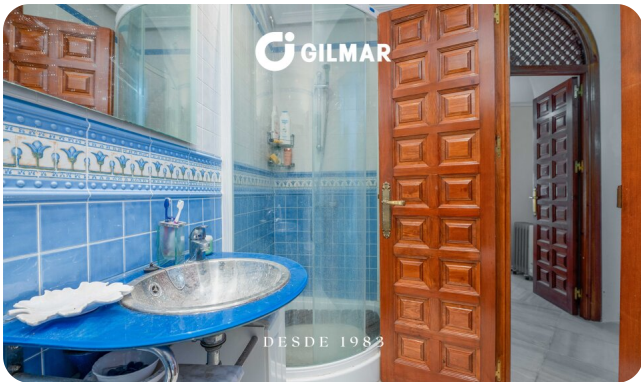

Perfect both as a private residence and for undertaking a tourist or cultural project. Bornos is a booming destination due to its natural beauty, history and proximity to other gems of the Sierra de Cádiz such as Arcos de la Frontera and Grazalema.

Description

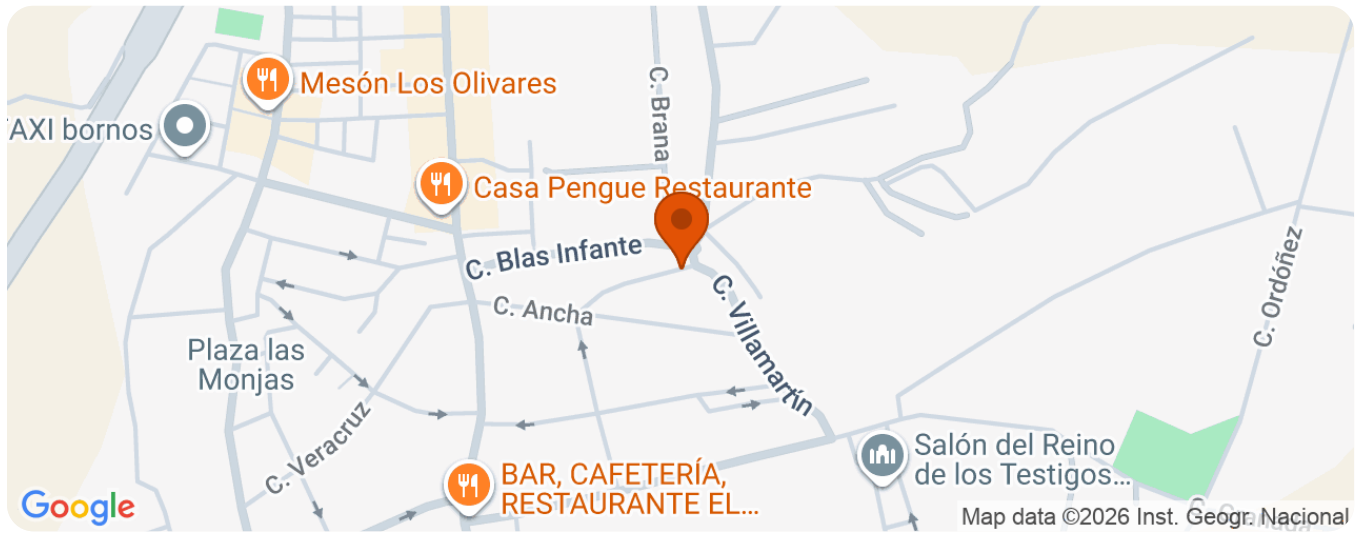

A unique opportunity for lovers of traditional architecture and those looking for an investment with character and potential.
