Description

GILMAR presents this spectacular 209-square-metre flat in the vibrant heart of Seville, in the coveted Centro neighbourhood. It is a real gem that offers the opportunity to personalise and update it to suit the future owner's taste, adapting it to their needs and lifestyle. Built in 1979, the property is located a few steps from the emblematic Plaza del Museo, a historic and cultural enclave that offers a unique and privileged setting.

This spacious property, ideal for families or those looking for generous space, has four bright bedrooms and three bathrooms, providing the comfort needed for everyday life. Its design includes a cosy separate living room, perfect for enjoying moments with family or entertaining friends. The natural light that floods the spaces, together with its elegant marble flooring, adds a touch of sophistication and warmth to the atmosphere.

The location is one of its greatest attractions, allowing its inhabitants to enjoy all the charms of the centre of Seville. Strolling through its historic streets, discovering charming squares, and enjoying a varied gastronomic and commercial offer becomes an everyday experience. In addition, its proximity to iconic and cultural sites makes this flat a privileged place to live and enjoy the essence of the city.
