Description

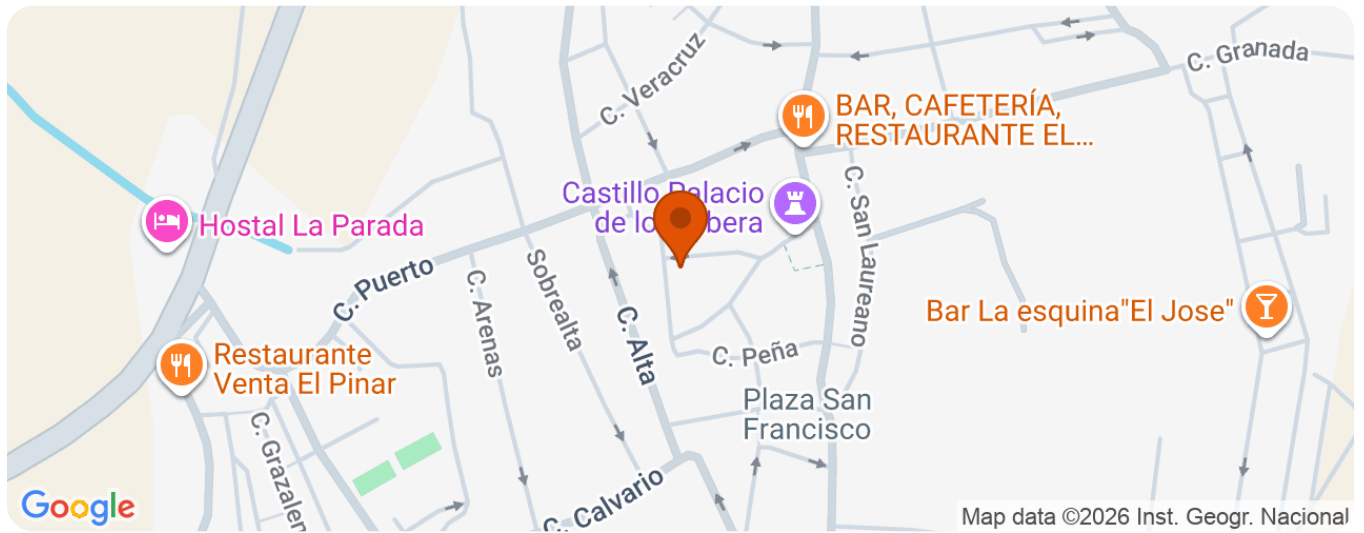

In the heart of Bornos, a charming municipality in the Sierra de Cádiz, famous for its history and stunning natural surroundings, lies this semi-detached villa, built in 1890. It has a total floor area of 741 m² on a plot of 711 m² and offers a unique opportunity for investors or families looking for a property with character and potential.

The property, which is in need of complete renovation, stands out for its two-storey layout and double façade, which allows for excellent natural light. In addition, it has enough space to create a garden and a garage, ideal for those looking to personalise every corner. Its privileged location in the centre of Bornos makes it a perfect choice for enjoying life in a quiet and authentic environment, without sacrificing modern comforts.

Bornos is a town with a rich historical and cultural heritage. Strolling through its streets will lead you to discover monuments such as the Palacio de los Ribera and the Church of Santo Domingo. In addition, the Bornos reservoir offers the possibility of practising water sports and enjoying spectacular views. The area has good road connections and is only a 40-minute drive from the city of Cádiz.
