Description

We present far more than just an apartment: an opportunity designed for those who understand that investing is also about choosing how you want to live.

In the heart of Fuengirola, facing the sea and in tune with the vibrant marina, this property is set within the renowned Las Palmeras Affiliated by FERGUS. A setting where every detail is carefully considered to deliver a comfortable, appealing experience with year-round potential.

We understand that not all buyers are looking for the same thing. This apartment speaks to two very clear profiles: those seeking a hassle-free, high-yield investment, and those looking for a seaside retreat to enjoy whenever they wish. Here, both aspirations coexist in perfect balance.

Its 34 built sqm have been thoughtfully designed to maximise every space, offering a bright atmosphere and sea views that connect effortlessly with the Mediterranean lifestyle. It's not just about square metres, but about how they are lived: light, location and functionality in perfect harmony.

The surroundings further enhance the experience. Just steps away from the Paseo Marítimo de Fuengirola, with access to all the hotel's amenities —swimming pool, solarium, dining and leisure areas— everything is in place for both owners and guests to enjoy with ease.

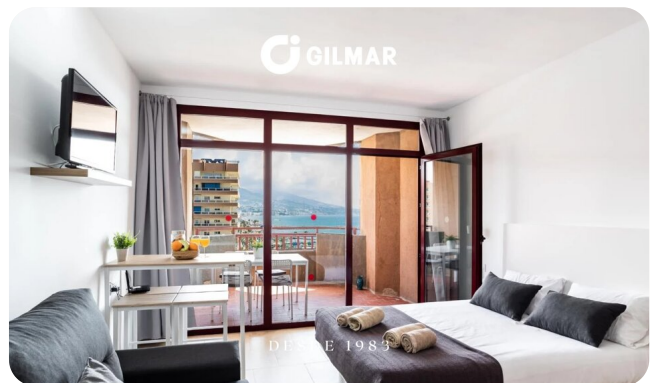

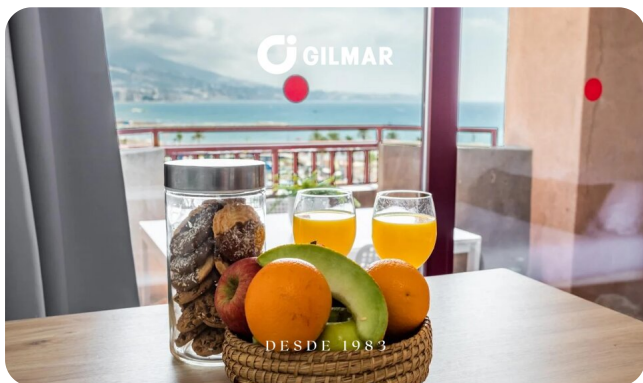

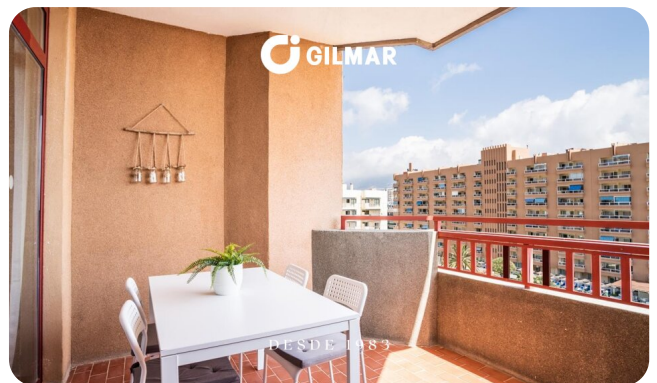

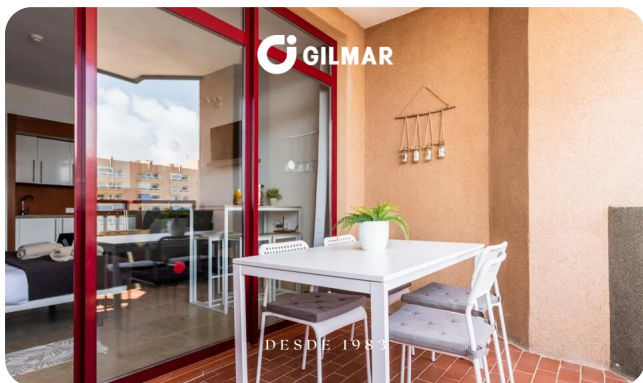

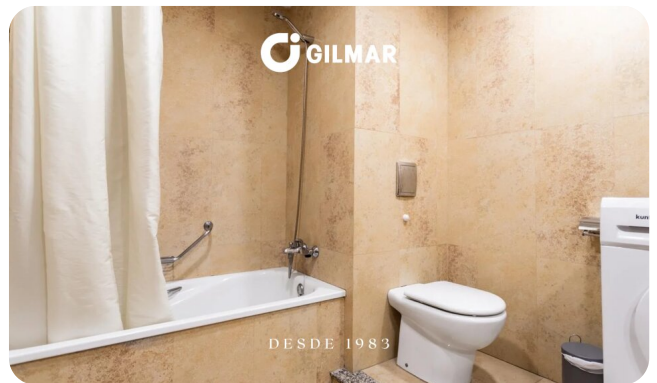

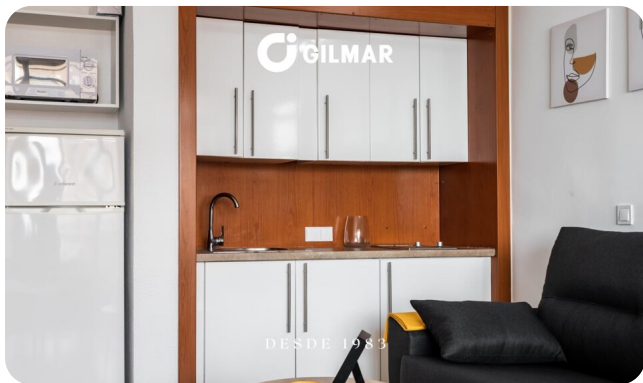

Description

At Gilmar, we understand that a sound decision is not based solely on data, but also on feeling, confidence and long-term vision. This property brings together all three: a prime location, consistent demand and an experience that invites you to return.

If you are looking for an investment that makes sense today and even more so tomorrow, we will be delighted to guide you personally every step of the way.

Let's talk and discover whether this could be your next smart move.
