Description

Discover this spectacular penthouse located in the coveted Gaztambide neighborhood, in the Chamberí district of Madrid. This property combines elegance, spaciousness, and endless possibilities in one of the capital's most exclusive areas. With a constructed area of 230 m² and an impressive 21 m² terrace, this penthouse is a true urban oasis in a well-maintained building with a doorman and an entrance in excellent condition.

Built in 1950, the property stands out for its brightness and perfect layout. It features four main bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and a terrace that offers an ideal space to enjoy moments outdoors in the heart of the city. The apartment, situated on a high floor, is exterior-facing and equipped with an elevator, ensuring convenience and accessibility. It's important to note that, although it doesn't have a garage or swimming pool, its location and features more than compensate for these omissions.

Gaztambide is a vibrant and lively neighborhood, with a rich cultural and gastronomic scene that makes it one of the most desirable places to live in Madrid. Its proximity to iconic landmarks like Parque del Oeste and its excellent transport links to the rest of the city make it ideal for residents seeking a high quality of life without sacrificing urban activity. Furthermore, the area boasts renowned schools, such as Colegio Nuestra Señora del Buen Consejo, located less than 10 kilometers away, and shopping centers like El Corte Inglés on Princesa Street, just minutes away.

Regarding transportation, the property is strategically located near the Moncloa metro station (lines 3 and 6) and several bus lines, including 44, 133, and C2, which provide easy access to various parts of Madrid. For those who prefer train travel, the proximity to the Príncipe Pío commuter rail station (lines C1, C7, and C10) offers an excellent option for getting around the city and its surrounding areas.
