Description

In the exclusive neighbourhood of Heliópolis, in Seville, we find this magnificent high-rise flat, a fully renovated property that combines functionality and design. With a floor area of 221 m², this home offers spacious and light-filled rooms thanks to its large windows, which also provide spectacular views of María Luisa Park. The property features high ceilings, which further enhance the sense of spaciousness and sophistication in every room.

The flat comprises three master bedrooms and three full bathrooms, all finished to a high standard with quality materials. The south-facing aspect ensures excellent natural light throughout the day, creating a warm and contemporary atmosphere.
