Description

Discover this exclusive frontline beach apartment, located in a prestigious gated community in Puerto Banús, one of the most sought-after areas on the Costa del Sol. A property that combines a prime location, comfort, and elegance—ideal both as a permanent residence and as an investment.

The property stands out for its spaciousness and natural light. It features four well-distributed bedrooms and three full bathrooms, offering more than enough space for families or for hosting guests in complete comfort.

The apartment has been refurbished and is presented in impeccable condition. The fully equipped kitchen is functionally integrated into the living space, providing a practical and elegant environment.

Among its features are a hot and cold air conditioning system, ensuring maximum comfort throughout the year, as well as lift access and an included parking space, adding extra convenience.

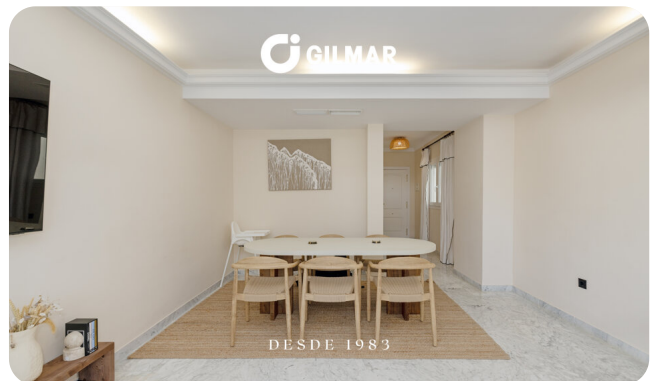

The development offers excellent amenities, including a communal swimming pool, concierge service, and security, ensuring privacy and peace of mind at all times. One of its main highlights is the direct access to the seafront promenade, allowing you to enjoy the beach just a few steps away, along with a wide range of restaurants, boutiques, and leisure options.
