Description

Discover this spectacular penthouse located in the exclusive Los Jerónimos neighborhood, in Madrid's Retiro district. With 163 m² of floor space, this home strikes the perfect balance between elegance and functionality. It features three spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, and a separate living room that stands out for its natural light. It also features a 15 m² terrace, ideal for enjoying moments of relaxation outdoors right in the heart of the city.

The property, located in a building constructed in 1935, has been partially renovated, preserving its original charm while adapting to modern needs. It is equipped with individual natural gas heating, hardwood floors, and a physical and automatic doorman, ensuring comfort and security. It also has an elevator, which facilitates access to the apartment. Additional features include built-in closets and a reinforced door, elements that provide functionality and peace of mind.

The Jerónimos neighborhood is one of Madrid's most iconic, famous for its quiet and stately atmosphere, surrounded by historic buildings and green spaces such as Retiro Park. The area offers a wide range of cultural attractions, with the Prado Museum and the Royal Academy of Fine Arts of San Fernando among its main highlights. It is also a residential area that combines exclusivity with proximity to essential services.
