Description

At Brassie Villas, every home is a testament to meticulous design and functionality, created for those who appreciate beauty in simplicity and carefully selected finishes.

The architecture of Brassie Villas speaks the language of modern minimalism, with clean lines and spaces that flow effortlessly, maximising natural light and interaction with the outdoor green spaces. The terraces become natural extensions of the living rooms, whilst the gardens provide the perfect canvas for creating your own personal retreat, just 6 minutes from the capital.

With a focus on energy efficiency and smart design, each villa offers features that are not only aesthetically pleasing but also environmentally conscious and practical for everyday living. Brassie Villas is your opportunity to own a home where every detail reflects a commitment to exceptional design.

Albatros model: open-plan spaces and impeccable finishes for €489,000. Birdie Plus model: with a garage, enhancing your comfort for €589,000.
