Description

Discover this exclusive 197 m² semi-detached villa, recently renovated with high-quality materials and situated in a quiet, sought-after area of Guadarrama. Set on a completely flat 645 m² plot, the home's design offers comfort and functionality—allowing for single-level living—while you enjoy stunning views of the surrounding mountains and nature.

The home is distributed across two floors that prioritize comfort and elegance. On the ground floor, you will find a brand-new kitchen featuring top-quality finishes and a cozy 30 m² living room with a fireplace; the latter offers direct access to a glazed terrace that invites relaxation and contemplation of the natural surroundings. This level also includes three spacious bedrooms—including a master suite—and an additional bathroom with a bathtub. A covered garage for one car is also located on this floor, ensuring maximum convenience.

The upper floor features a versatile second living room with endless possibilities, along with an additional bedroom that includes a full bathroom and access to a private terrace. It is the perfect space to create an independent area or to enjoy intimate family moments.

The outdoor areas are equally appealing: a meticulously maintained garden and a private pool provide the perfect retreat for relaxing and enjoying
