Description

GILMAR Real Estate Consulting presents this exclusive property with 211 m² of built space located in a classic building in the Barrio de las Letras.

The home boasts three exterior balconies, high ceilings, spacious rooms, and a traditional layout offering numerous renovation possibilities.

One standout feature is its shared boundary wall with the Lope de Vega Museum House, where the renowned writer spent the last twenty-five years of his life.

Situated in the very heart of Madrid's cultural hub, this property is surrounded by museums, theaters, galleries, and an excellent selection of dining options, just minutes away from Paseo del Prado, the Prado Museum, and Retiro Park.

A unique property distinguished by its spaciousness, prime location, and historical significance.

Since 1983, GILMAR has been the benchmark in the high-end real estate sector, helping clients discover the home of their dreams.
