Description

In the heart of the historic Imperial neighborhood, located within the prestigious Arganzuela district in Madrid, you'll find this spectacular high-floor apartment boasting 59 m² of built space. This property has everything you need to enjoy the most exclusive urban lifestyle. Built in 2025, it combines modern design, high-end finishes, and unparalleled comfort in one of the capital's most traditional and charming areas.

With one bedroom and one bathroom, this apartment is perfect for those seeking the ideal balance between functionality and luxury. Its orientation ensures abundant natural light, enhancing the elegant hardwood floors and creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. As an exterior apartment, it offers unobstructed views, while the building itself stands out with a luxurious entrance and 24-hour security. Comfort and safety are guaranteed with features such as air conditioning, state-of-the-art home automation, reinforced door, and built-in wardrobes. For those who value exclusivity, the property includes access to a communal garden, pool, parking, and a private balcony.

The Imperial neighborhood is known for its quiet streets and strategic location near the center of Madrid and the Manzanares River. This area blends modern developments with traditional charm and offers excellent connectivity throughout the city. The Wanda Metropolitano stadium is less than 5
