Description

Gilmar Real Estate Consulting presents a fantastic opportunity for its clients in Madrid's Arganzuela district to live or invest in Palos de la Frontera.

Some homes have something special, and this apartment is one of them. Completely renovated and brand new, it's the perfect place for those seeking a welcoming, beautiful space ready to enjoy from day one.

Its 36 square meters are used to their fullest potential, with a practical and functional layout that includes a bedroom, a full bathroom, and a pleasant living area. All of this is presented in a modern style that creates a feeling of home the moment you step inside.

Although it's a ground-floor apartment, it's surprisingly bright throughout the day, creating warm and inviting spaces. It also boasts a private patio, an ideal spot for enjoying a morning coffee, reading outdoors, or simply savoring an extra space that's hard to find in the city.

Located on Juan Sebastián Elcano Street, in a vibrant area with all amenities nearby, you'll have shops, cafes, public transport, and everything you need for daily life right at your fingertips.

This is the perfect home for those looking to move out on their own, have a little retreat in Madrid, or make an attractive investment in a highly
