Description

Discover a villa with character in the heart of the New Golden Mile, where the peace of nature blends perfectly with the convenience of being just minutes from both Estepona and Marbella.

Set in a privileged natural environment, surrounded by greenery and privacy, this exceptional villa offers 336 m² of built area on a generous 1,112 m² plot, providing the perfect balance of space, comfort and Mediterranean living.

Its large floor-to-ceiling windows fill every room with natural light, creating bright, welcoming interiors that seamlessly connect with the surrounding landscape. A home designed to embrace the outdoors while enjoying a wonderful sense of openness throughout the year.

The outdoor areas are designed to make the most of the Costa del Sol's outstanding climate. Enjoy a private swimming pool, a barbecue area and several sunny terraces, offering the perfect settings to relax, entertain family and friends, or simply unwind in complete tranquillity.

One of the property's standout features is its independent guest annex, offering endless possibilities. Whether you need guest accommodation, a private space for family members, a home office or a fully independent workspace for remote working, this versatile addition adapts to your lifestyle.

Description

This is an ideal home for those seeking privacy, nature and serenity, while remaining within easy reach of the beaches, golf courses, restaurants, international schools and all the amenities that Estepona and Marbella have to offer.
