Description

Gilmar Real Estate is selling this fantastic penthouse located in one of the most privileged areas of the Costa del Sol, in Rincón de la Victoria, a unique combination of tranquility, comfort, and natural beauty, where peace and quality of life are guaranteed. Situated just a few meters from the beach, which is easily accessible on foot, the area also offers everything you need in terms of shops, services, pharmacies, etc.

Rincón de la Victoria is a tourist center on the Costa del Sol, known for its sea caves and beaches. It is conveniently located near the city of Málaga, as the center of Málaga is 16 kilometers away via the highway.

The property is located in a residential complex with a swimming pool and green areas, and also includes a parking space in the same building with direct access from the elevator. It boasts a total constructed area of 105 square meters, of which over 50 square meters are dedicated to its wonderful terrace. The remaining 50 square meters comprise the living space, which includes a living room, kitchen, double bedroom, and a full bathroom.

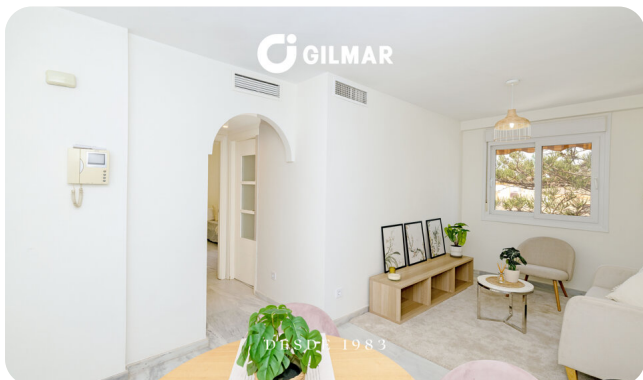

The property is in perfect condition and requires no investment to move in. It is undoubtedly a very attractive option for those seeking to live near the beach in a peaceful setting with all amenities, the convenience of a garage and swimming pool, and the opportunity to enjoy a magnificent terrace that can be used almost year-round thanks to the fantastic climate this area offers, unique in Europe. This makes it a suitable property for those looking for a permanent residence, a vacation home, or even an investment property for rental income.
