Description

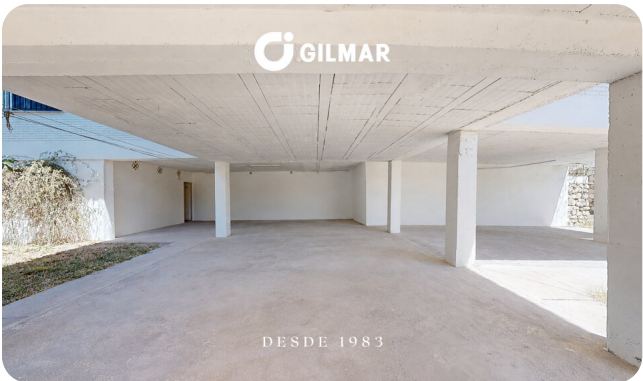

In one of the most attractive areas of La Capellanía, you'll find this detached villa with 275 m² of built space. This property offers excellent potential for those seeking a spacious, independent home with private outdoor space.

What truly sets this house apart are its generous dimensions and the seamless connection between indoor and outdoor areas. It features a large porch, perfect for creating a cozy seating area to enjoy the climate for much of the year. Additionally, the private pool makes the outdoor space one of the home's most appealing features. The property also includes private parking and a storage area, adding convenience and practicality to everyday living.

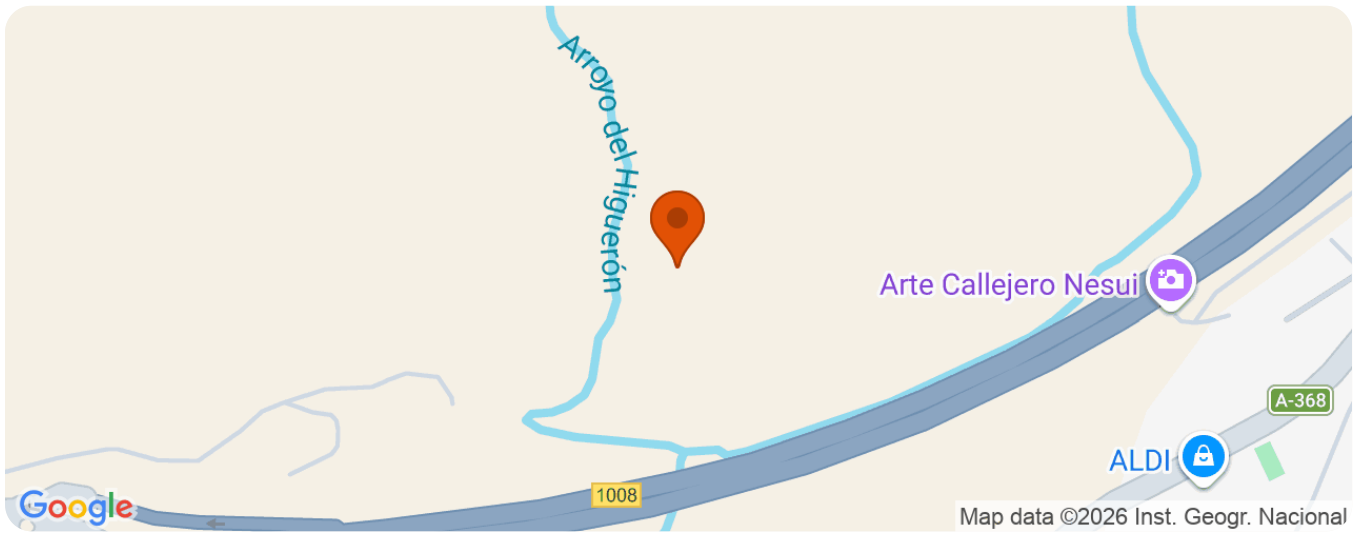

Inside, you'll find 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, along with various spaces that offer numerous possibilities for customization. While the home requires renovation, this presents an incredible opportunity to update and tailor the property entirely to the style and needs of its new owner, making the most of its generous layout and the benefits of a detached villa.

Another highlight is its partial sea views, which provide natural light, a lovely sense of openness, and a connection to the surrounding environment. Don't miss out on this opportunity!
