Description

Exclusivity and design on the Alameda de Hércules

GILMAR presents this elegant property with a floor area of 123 m², fully refurbished and situated in one of the most characterful locations in Seville's historic centre.

The property impresses with its brightness, spaciousness and thoughtful layout, offering three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a spacious separate living room. The refurbishment has been carried out with particular attention to design and the quality of the finishes.

Of particular note is the designer kitchen, one of the property's standout features, equipped with top-of-the-range appliances and designed to combine functionality with aesthetics. It also features a lovely terrace, porcelain tiled floors, a reinforced front door and high-quality fittings. The building does not have a lift.

A contemporary home full of character, perfect for those who wish to enjoy the essence of Seville from one of its most vibrant and sought-after areas, surrounded by fine dining, culture and an extraordinary range of leisure activities.

A unique property in a truly privileged location.
