Description

Gilmar presents this spectacular newly built detached villa in the prestigious Los Robles residential area, Torrelodones. A contemporary architectural project that stands in an elevated and privileged position, offering one of the most extraordinary and sought-after panoramic views in the Community of Madrid.

On a magnificent independent plot of 1,025 sqm, stand 330 sqm of pure design and avant-garde. The great distinguishing feature of this property is its incomparable views: an infinite horizon that blends the vibrant Madrid skyline, the majesty of the Cuenca Alta del Manzanares, and the outline of the Sierra. A visual spectacle that takes center stage at sunset, when the illuminated capital becomes an unparalleled backdrop. All of this can be enjoyed from its spacious terraces and, most especially, from its spectacular accessible flat roof, designed as a true 360-degree private viewpoint.

The exteriors invite absolute enjoyment, highlighting a superb 10x5 meter private pool that integrates perfectly with the architecture of the house. Inside, the design has prioritized natural light, spacious volumes, and a fluid, constant connection between the indoor spaces and the landscape.

The main floor houses the day area, presided over by an imposing living-dining room of over 41 sqm overlooking the garden and the pool. It is accompanied by a spacious 20 sqm independent kitchen, a practical laundry and pantry area, and a guest toilet. This level is completed by a versatile 15 sqm independent room, ideal for setting up as a professional office, cinema room, or multi-purpose space.

The upper floor is entirely dedicated to rest, guaranteeing maximum privacy and comfort. It houses four formidable bedrooms, all designed as exclusive suites with full en-suite bathrooms, their own walk-in closets, and direct access to outdoor terraces. Special mention goes to the dazzling master suite of over 48 sqm, a true private sanctuary featuring its own entrance hall, a large walk-in closet, a generous bathroom, and an exclusively used terrace.

Located in the well-established surroundings of Los Robles, this property offers the perfect balance between absolute residential tranquility, surrounded by a protected natural environment, and excellent connectivity. It features quick access to the A-6 motorway, proximity to the public transport network and the Cercanías commuter train station, as well as having all everyday services a very short distance away.

Since 1983, GILMAR has accompanied its clients in the search for their ideal home.
