Description

Your next home on the Costa del Sol awaits you in Altos de Lunymar II, Estepona.

Some properties are simply lived in, while others are truly enjoyed. This 84 m² apartment, located on a peaceful second floor with lift access, clearly belongs to the second category.

As soon as you enter, the natural light and spaciousness of the living room welcome you in. A space designed for relaxed living, opening onto a generous 27 m² terrace, the true highlight of this home. Here, morning coffee tastes different, lunches turn into long afternoons, and summer evenings invite you to stay a little longer under the stars.

The 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms offer the perfect layout both for everyday living and for welcoming guests, while the two private parking spaces and storage room provide that extra space that makes everyday life so much easier.

Outside, the residential complex offers its own communal swimming pool and landscaped gardens where time seems to slow down. And yet, Estepona town centre, with all its life, beaches and amenities, is just a few minutes away.

It's not just an apartment. It's an opportunity to change your lifestyle, your pace, your views. It's the Costa del Sol within reach.
