Jerónimos is one of Madrid's most exclusive and iconic neighbourhoods. Renowned for its proximity to the Retiro Park, the capital's green gem, the neighbourhood combines tranquillity and elegance with a prime location. It is home to some of the city's most historic and prestigious buildings, such as the Prado Museum, the Royal Botanical Gardens and the Church of Los Jerónimos, from which the neighbourhood takes its name. The tree-lined, peaceful streets are lined with restaurants, signature cafés, luxury boutiques and all the amenities you could wish for, just a short walk from your home. This neighbourhood is perfect for those who value being close to the cultural, historical and artistic heart of Madrid.

Just a 10-minute drive away is the Santa María del Pilar school, a prestigious institution in the field of education. You can also enjoy the El Corte Inglés shopping centre in Goya, ideal for your daily shopping and leisure activities.

As for transport, the connections are excellent. The nearest underground stations are Retiro (Line 2) and Ibiza (Line 9), both just a few minutes' walk away. As for buses, several routes offer quick and convenient travel around the city. If you prefer the train, Atocha commuter station is less than 2 km away, connecting to numerous destinations across the country.
