Description

There are places where a home becomes much more than a property. It becomes a way of life.

This exceptional newly built villa in Sotogrande is based on a different concept of luxury: elegance, contemporary architecture and wellbeing, all designed to embrace a peaceful, comfortable and truly exceptional Mediterranean lifestyle.

With 6 bedrooms and 8 bathrooms, the villa has been thoughtfully designed to offer space, privacy and the highest levels of comfort throughout. Every detail reflects the same philosophy: living better.

The property features dedicated spaces for wellbeing and entertainment, including a private spa, gym and cinema room, together with underfloor heating to ensure exceptional comfort throughout the year.

Its privileged location completes the experience. Surrounded by nature and prestigious golf courses, and close to the renowned Sotogrande International School, the villa offers the perfect balance of privacy, tranquillity and access to everything that makes Sotogrande such a unique destination.

Here, luxury is not about excess. It is about time, tranquillity, wellbeing, space and shared moments.

morning on the golf course. Returning home to relax in your private spa. Sharing dinner with friends while the Mediterranean sets the pace.

A villa created for those who are not simply looking for a home, but for a place where they can live the life they have always dreamed of.

Sotogrande. A new way of understanding luxury.
