Description

Penthouse with Terrace in Castillejos, Just Minutes from Cuzco

Gilmar presents this attractive penthouse located in the Castillejos neighbourhood, just minutes from Cuzco, one of Madrid's main financial and business districts. The property enjoys an excellent location in an established residential area, with a wide range of shops, restaurants, everyday amenities and excellent transport links, while benefiting from its proximity to one of the capital's most important business hubs.

The property offers approximately 75 sqm of living space, with two particularly spacious and bright bedrooms that provide a comfortable and versatile living environment. It also features a full bathroom, a welcoming living and dining area with direct access to an approximately 8 sqm terrace, ideal for relaxing outdoors or enjoying meals in the open air, and a separate kitchen that offers practicality and convenience for everyday living.

The building is in very good condition, adding further appeal to the property.

Combining generous bedroom sizes, a private terrace and an excellent location, this penthouse represents an attractive opportunity both for those looking for a home in one of Madrid's well-established neighbourhoods and for investors seeking a property with strong rental potential,
